

Using the Job Accommodation Network (JAN) Website

<http://askjan.org>

AskJAN.org is a comprehensive online resource center designed to provide employers, people with disabilities, their family members, service providers, educators, and others with technical assistance on job accommodations and the Americans with Disabilities Act. The site offers a number of ways to find this information. Here are some tips highlighting features of this site.

From the home page <http://askjan.org/index.html>

- You can use the search box at the top of the page to type in a word or phrase
- You can search by audience:
 - Employers - <http://askjan.org/empl/index.htm>
 - Individuals - <http://askjan.org/indiv/index.htm>
 - Others (service providers & professionals) - <http://askjan.org/others/index.htm>
- You can find all ADA related information at <http://askjan.org/links/adalinks.htm>
- Use the A-Z of Disabilities and Accommodation to search:
 - By Disability - <http://askjan.org/media/atoz.htm>
 - By Topic - <http://askjan.org/topics/atoz.htm>
 - By Limitation - <http://askjan.org/limitations/atoz.htm>
- A comprehensive list of JAN's publications can be found at:
<http://askjan.org/pubsandres/list.htm>
Many are available in Spanish - <http://askjan.org/espanol/espanol.htm>
And some are available in audio version as well.
- JAN's Searchable Online Accommodation Resource (SOAR) system is designed to let users explore various accommodation options for people with disabilities in work and educational settings. The site will walk you through the steps to choose a disability and then a limitation that corresponds to your situation at hand, before supplying you with specific solutions that may apply.
